Application Process

Applicants interested in a position with the Missouri Department of Corrections are encouraged to view a list of vacancies at doc.mo.gov or at oa.mo.gov. After completing the necessary application, if qualified for the position for which you are applying, you will be notified by email. If there is a required examination, you will be notified of the time and place of examinations). Your score(s) will be sent to you by email. Your name and score will also be placed on a “Register of Eligibles.” Some job classifications are scored based only on education and experience.

All male applicants between the ages of 18-25 must be registered with the Selective Service System.

Hiring Process

When vacancies occur, the state agency has the option of requesting a “Register of Eligibles” and/or filling the vacancy by the transfer/re-employment/promotion process. If a “Register of Eligibles” is requested, your name may be sent to the agency for consideration. Merit System rules require that vacancies be filled from the top 15 applicants or 15 percent of available applicants from the “Register of Eligibles.” Your score determines if you will receive an invitation to interview. All classes, with the exception of Corrections Officer I, use this hiring process.

Corrections Officer I Hiring Process

If you are qualified for Corrections Officer I, you will be scheduled for the next available examination date. The Corrections Officer I position requires that you complete two phases of testing:

- Phase I: Video Examination — Your test results will be sent by email within 3-4 days. You must score at least 70 percent to be considered for Phase II. This minimal score is subject to change based upon the needs of the department.
- Phase II: Pre-employment Screening — This process consists of an interview and a physical agility test. After completion of this phase, a thorough background investigation will be conducted. The background investigation can take up to four weeks.

If you successfully complete both phases, you will be considered for employment in the county(ies) you selected on your application.
