

District Programs

Intake: Orientation program for first-time offenders. The conditions of supervision are reviewed along with information on how to successfully complete your probation or parole.

Offenders Offering Alternatives (OOA): The inmates at SECC sponsor this program for at-risk first-time offenders. This includes inmate presentations, institutional tours, and one-on-one interaction with inmates.

Pathway to Change (PTC): A cognitive restructuring program to help offenders make positive choices and changes.

PUPS (Puppies Uniting People Successfully)

A community-based adaptation of the Department's Puppies for Parole Program, this honor program unites the community, offenders, and P&P staff to socialize and train dogs at a local shelter to promote their well-being and adoptability.

Sex Offender Therapy: A therapeutic program provided for offenders supervised for offenses requiring treatment. Provided by a private vendor.

Treatment Court: An intensive approach to dealing with offenders who have substance abuse problems. The offender works with a team of specialists while learning to make positive decisions.
