Department of Corrections seeking public comment on regulations

The Missouri Department of Corrections announced today that it is seeking public comment on department regulations in response to Governor Eric R. Greitens’ executive order directing each state agency to undertake a review of state regulations under its jurisdiction.

“Gov. Greitens has called on Missourians to comment on regulations that may be outdated, ineffective or burdensome in order to better serve its citizens,” Department of Corrections Director Anne L. Precythe said. “Our department supports the Governor’s executive order and encourages members of the public to be part of this important review process.”

Members of the public are encouraged to make suggestions to improve the Department of Corrections’ administrative rules. Citizens can comment on regulations by filling out online submission forms that can be found on the department’s website at <https://doc.mo.gov/rulereview/>; by submitting written comments to Public Information Office, P.O. Box 236, Jefferson City, MO 65102; by fax to 573-751-4099; or at two public hearings, which are listed below and posted online. Please include “Attention: Administrative Rule Review” on the fax cover sheet or envelope of mailed in comments. Consistent with the executive order, these comments will be accepted through Nov. 6, 2017.
