

DISTRICT PROGRAMS

Treatment Court Unit

This unit is a Court-supervised treatment program for non-violent Adult Felony clients. The Treatment Court offers two core dockets consisting of Drug Court and a Veterans Court. Also, there are dockets for co-occurring clients, MAT/MED services and recently started Wellness docket.

Felony Redirect Program

This program is a Post-Plea Deferred Sentencing diversion program for clients with little or no criminal history who are charged with a non-violent felony offense(s) and not suffering from substance use disorder.

Youthful Offender Program

This program is a diversionary program for clients ranging from age 17-26, with little or no criminal history who are charged with a non-violent felony offense(s). Clients will receive services in trauma intervention and cognitive programming.

Investigations Unit

This unit conducts comprehensive Sentencing Assessment Reports and Community Corrections Screenings on clients to assist the Court in sentencing. In addition, this unit completes Board and Field Information Replies summarizing offenses at the request of Probation & Parole Central Office and DOC institutions.
