The District 1 sub office (1b) provides supervision to assigned caseloads in the fifth circuit and is connected to District 1 St. Joseph Community Supervision Center (SJCSC). The district covers seven counties and provides traditional supervision as well as short-term housing for male and female clients in need of enhanced monitoring and structure. During residential intervention, offenders maintain employment in the community as they work to address liabilities, enhance assets and achieve goals agreed to by the officer and the offender designed to promote positive change while completing supervision successfully.
