

DISTRICT PROGRAMS

Treatment Court Unit

This unit is a Court-supervised treatment program for non-violent Adult Felony clients. The Treatment Court offers two core dockets consisting of Drug Court and a Veterans Court. Also, there are dockets for co-occurring clients, MAT/MED services and recently started Wellness docket.

Felony Redirect Program

This program is a Post-Plea Deferred Sentencing diversion program for clients with little or no criminal history who are charged with a non-violent felony offense(s) and not suffering from substance use disorder.

Youthful Offender Program

This program is a diversionary program for clients ranging from age 17-26, with little or no criminal history who are charged with a non-violent felony offense(s). Clients will receive services in trauma intervention and cognitive programming.

Free and Clean and Community Partnership Restoration (CPR)

This re-entry unit supports Gateway Free and Clean's Aftercare treatment program for non-violent Adult Felony clients. Clients who are released from short term or long term treatment in DAI are referred to this program if they reside within the 270 loop. Aftercare services, case management and MAT/MED services are available. CPR supports current clients with immediate treatment needs in the community with the same resources as Free and Clean with the goal to deter incarceration.
